Around the State.....

We are deeply saddened at the death of Pastor Mac Rigel. Friday afternoon, he took a nap around 4:00 pm and woke up in heaven.

There will be a viewing Monday night from 5:00-8:00 p.m. at Marion Nelson Funeral Home in Lake Wales. A memorial service is planned for Tuesday at 2:00 p.m. at South Lake Wales Church.

The family is requesting that donations be made to the Rigel Scholarship Fund at Warner Southern College in lieu of flowers.

He was a great man, who has had a profound impact on the Kingdom of God. He started more ministries and launched more new ideas, than any of us will ever know.

Please Pray for Pastor Chip Taylor

Pastor Chip Taylor has been diagnosed with (Stage 2) lymphoma. This cancer is very treatable and has a high cure rate.

On Jan 31, he will have surgery to install his "chemo" port and have a bone marrow biopsy. Chemotherapy will start on Feb. 4. Treatments are outpatient and will last about 5 hours each time.

According to Chip, He will "most likely lose what little hair I have." He will undergo six treatments which will be given every 3 weeks. He asks us to pray that by the end of May he will be cancer free.

Pastor Chip writes: "Our family is doing amazing well. My mom and sister have been huge. Lori is a Rock. God has been everywhere and our quiet time has been filled with His fresh presence. Thank you for your love and for walking this path with us. Please don't worry about us....God is faithful. We have His peace and His promises! Value each day! Hug your kids and tell the people you love that you love them."
