Breakout Sessions to include:

Percept

Attendees will learn how to run, analyze and interpret percept reports evangelistically to have a better idea how to reach out non-churched people in your community. Registered participants will have the option to provide the necessary data to have a percept report analyzed in the session.

Retired Pastors

This session is also directed to soon-to-be-retired pastors. 3 pertinent areas to be covered: Transition from pulpit to pew; finances; finding ways to continue service after retirement.

Spanglish

Churches, pastors and staff working with Spanglish in the State, please contact Alejandro to register for this session.

Finances in a Contracting Economy

How to maximize your salary retirement program; pastoral package; and church record keeping. Information on the latest IRS guidelines.

Youth

Youth leadership development and the future of FSLI. Discussion and planning session for leaders interested in helping reshape the Florida Student Leadership Institute to be a valuable tool for local youth ministry

Large Churches

For churches with over 600 in attendance. Round Table for discussion on staffing; sermon reactions from congregation (bring your funny e-mails); meet with other men and women who understand what you go through.

Leading the African America Church

Leading a small urban congregation to turn outward by developing passion for reaching out to the community for God.

Leading from the Second Chair-Associate Pastors

As you polish your leadership gift, is there synergy or tension with your senior pastor? Round Table. What's your biggest fear/frustration? What are your insecurities? Are you called to be a Senior Pastor? How to be the ultimate Associate Pastor? Bring your funniest story.

Credentialing

How the credentialing process works. Answers to your questions. Information on interfacing with the online process.

Children Ministries

For Children ministers, staff and workers. Round Table. Bible Olympics, training leaders, the best practices to reaching out unchurched children in your community.

Seating for the Break-Out Sessions is limited. Pre-Register by sending an e-mail to alex@flcog.org.
